DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Harada et al. US 5,853,867.

Harada '867 discloses an absorbent comprising cationic absorbent polymer and anionic absorbent polymer fixed to a substrate through a binder, which is crosslinked during or after polymerization (column 3, lines 45-48; column 5, lines 1-10; column 8, line 54 to column 9, line 16). The claimed binder species are disclosed (columns 4-5 and 8) and disclosed temperature is less than 120 degrees (Examples). An absorbent capacity of 5 g/g is disclosed.

3. Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Gander US 3,951,893.

Art Unit: 1754

Gander discloses polymeric composition comprising a silane crosslinked interpolymer of alkyl acrylate (first monomer) and other unsaturated monomers (second monomer) the instant range. Suitable silane acrylate crosslinking monomers include the alkoxysilane expressed in the present claims. The crosslinking occurs at drying temperature. The reference teaches the incorporation of a second monomer, which may be alkaline, acid labile, thus encompass the limitations expressed in claims (col. lines 16-38).

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-33 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-28 of U.S. Patent No. 6,849,685.

Art Unit: 1754

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it is considered that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to claim the absorbent binder without the combination of water and moisture-induced crosslinking because a water-soluble ionic polymer is claimed, which would obviously, to one ordinary skill, suggest moisture-induced crosslinking.
